

Response/ Preparedness

Individuals have the knowledge and resources to prepare for and remain safe during natural disasters, pandemics, terrorism events, or environmental hazards.

Health Literacy

Individuals have the knowledge and resources needed to practice healthy behaviors and lifestyles as well as take action to prevent and manage disease.

Living and Working Conditions

Individuals live and work in environments that are free from biological, chemical, and physical hazards as well as violence and offer accessible resources that promote well-being.

Family Structure

The stability of families and attributes of parents influence development of positive behaviors and healthy relationships.

Social Connectedness

Individuals have relationships with people or organizations that bolster health and well-being.

Health Care

Individuals have access to physical, oral, behavioral and long-term health care.

Healthy People

Healthy People are those of all ages who practice healthy behaviors; take action to prevent and manage chronic disease; are free from exposure to environmental hazards; have access to physical, oral, behavioral, and long-term health services; have healthy relationships; and are safe and free from abuse and domestic violence.